

Diesel Mechanic

LOCATION

- Temple Hills, MD

DESCRIPTION

- The Diesel Mechanic is responsible for providing expert level diagnosis and repair for all motor truck and/or heavy construction equipment.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Perform all levels of preventive maintenance on truck and/or heavy equipment.
- Inspect braking systems, steering mechanisms, wheel bearings, hydraulics, and other important parts to ensure they are in proper operating condition.
- Identify warrantable repairs and document on repair orders.
- Perform routine maintenance such as changing oil, checking batteries and lubricating equipment / machinery.
- Inspect and verify dimensions and clearances of parts to ensure conformance with factory specifications.
- Maintain work area safety and orderly appearance.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Minimum of three (3) years practical experience working with truck and/or heavy construction equipment required.
- Specialized training and experience in the diagnosis/troubleshooting of major components (engines and transmissions), OEM training courses, ASE certification and 608/609 certifications – preferred.
- Proficiency in the use of all tools of trade required - includes welding equipment, diagnostic equipment, and power tools.
- Computer skills required for data entry into maintenance systems.
- A valid driver's license required; current CDL license preferred

MOTOR TRUCK / HEAVY EQUIPMENT

- Includes, but not limited to the following: Engines (gas and diesel), electrical/brake/cooling systems, transmissions (manual and automatic), hydraulics, power train, clutches, differentials/power dividers, PTO systems, fan clutches, engine electronics, power steering systems and steering gear boxes.

BENEFITS

- Paid holidays (7)
- Company PTO Plan (personal time off)
- Medical, Dental, Life & Disability Insurance
- Matching 401(k)
- Performance bonuses
- Educational Assistance Program

ABOUT US

- ReAgg is an experienced construction aggregate supplier committed to providing quality products and services throughout Maryland, Northern Virginia, Washington, DC and the Baltimore Metropolitan area. With more than 30 years of experience, ReAgg operates and maintains an extensive fleet of trucks, trailers, flatbeds, lowboys, and roll-offs and has become a valuable resource for contractors, excavators, developers, and service suppliers.

To find out more, please visit our website at www.reagg.com.

APPLY

- For immediate consideration, please fill out our employment application. Submission instructions are located on the last page.
- Questions: Please call our main office at (301) 336-6700 or email employment@reagg.com.

We look forward to hearing from you!